

Blind man's bluff (Colin-Maillard)

- Each team has 5 players; one blind man and four others.
- One child is blindfolded. The other children are spread out and walking or running.
- The blindfolded child must catch another child and ask « what is your name? ». The child replies « My name is ». This child is then out of the game.
- The last child to be captured becomes « the blind man ».